ORDER

The Jurisdictional Statement in the brief of appellant does not comply with Circuit Rule 28(a)(2)(ii) which provides that an appellant's brief contain a jurisdictional statement that includes:

The filing date of any motion for a new trial or alteration of the judgment or any other motion claimed to toll the time within which to appeal.

The appellant's jurisdictional statement fails to provide the date appellant filed her Rule 59(e) motion to reconsider and gives no indication whether appellant claims that the motion tolled the time to appeal. It is insufficient to merely reveal the date of the motion's disposition. Counsel is further advised that this information should not be relegated to a footnote. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the brief of appellant is STRICKEN. Appellant must file a new brief no later than October 20, 2016, which contains a jurisdictional statement that complies with all the requirements of Circuit Rule 28(a) and in particular Rule

No. 15-2982

28(a)(2)(ii). Counsel for appellant is reminded that she may not change any other portion of the brief.

This order will not extend the time for appellees to file their brief.

NOTE: Counsel is reminded that she must file an entire corrected brief, including the required certifications, and appendix if an appendix was attached to the stricken brief.
