IV. REGULATIONS GOVERNING PROBATIONARY FACULTY POSITIONS:

This Probationary Faculty appointment is for the 2010-2011 academic year only, August 22, 2010 through May 21, 2011. Subsequent renewals must be considered annually. A probationary faculty appointment may result in the achievement of tenure by action of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System as described in the UW System Faculty Personnel Rules and counterpart policies and procedures of UWP. Copies of those documents are enclosed and further specify terms and conditions which are incorporated by reference into the offer of appointment. A probationary faculty may not exceed 7 years in a full-time position. You have been granted two years toward tenure. Thus, if you remain continuously employed in your full-time position at UW-Platteville, the University must consider you for tenure by not later than the 2013-2014 academic year.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES OF EMPLOYEE:

Failure to complete the requirements stated below and to assume the duties assigned to this position on the effective date of the appointment will render this contract null and void.

1. This offer is contingent upon verification of identity and work authorization as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. This verification must be completed at the time of hire, which is the beginning of employment. The law prohibits the University from employing an individual who has not provided the appropriate documentation (or receipt for ordering the appropriate documentation). Enclosed is a list of documents which you may present at the Human Resource Office, 2300 Ullsvik Hall, to establish identity and work authorization.
2. Contact the Payroll Office, Ullsvik 2300 (342-1178), to make an appointment to do paperwork required to put you on the payroll. The Payroll Office can provide information about fringe benefits.
3. This appointment is conditional pending the results of a criminal background check. The appointment will be withdrawn or terminated if the results are unacceptable.
4. Request that National University, La Jolla, CA send an official copy of your transcript to the Human Resource Office prior to the start of your contract.

I have received the offer of appointment as described. I have read the contract and enclosed letter. I understand and accept the terms and conditions of employment as stated without modifications or alterations.
