Sabina,

The FTRs are here. I will follow up with my student worker on Monday, when he returns. I will make sure that we do whatever it takes to get this processed asap.

Jay

Subject: Cyber-crime fund

Thank you for checking up on my payment request for a conference in Washington, DC, Feb. 19-21 for a student (Ron Jacobus) and myself. My students presented on online radicalization, we attended cyber-forensic presentations, made contact with experts in the field, and also had a meeting on this topic at the National Defense University.

The trip fulfills the conditions of dissemination and training as outlined in the budget to AT&T, the funding business.

The payment request was made before spring break and sent to LAE for signature.

Thank you,

Sabina
