The inevitability of
Open Access

Cyber-Security Journal:

This web site is intended to become an open source Cyber-Security Journal. In this journal scholarly peer reviewed articles of quality work with applicability to Cyber-Security may be posted to help in the fight against cyber-criminals in our high tech world.

Cyber-Security Journal, when ready for publication, is expected to be free to access and free to publish. It is expected to be funded by donations from companies, universities and individuals who wish to help combat cyber-crime and protect our cyber-infrastructure.
