

Voluntary Statement

I, [REDACTED], am making this statement of my own free will. No promises or threats have been made to me. I acknowledge that this statement is fully voluntary and without compulsion, inducement or coercion.

I enrolled for Criminal Justice Seminar on Spring 2016. I was not aware of the legal case involving Sabina Burton. Burton did not speak about the incident in class or during my visits at her office. She also did not make any indications regarding the allegations made.

I have read the above statement and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
